IN 1994, SCOTT CORRIDAN ESTABLISHED Scott Corridan Design. For over 20 years, Scott has produced weddings that have been featured in such outlets as San Francisco Magazine, Modern Luxury San Francisco Weddings, Today's Bride San Francisco Bay Area, Style Me Pretty and Tahoe Unveiled, Inside Weddings, Martha Stewart Weddings, InStyle Weddings, C Magazine, Town & Country, Brides, The Knot, OK! Magazine, Wedding Bells, Grace Ormonde Wedding Style, Better Homes and Gardens Simply Creative Weddings, the Robb Report and Simply Elegant Platinum Weddings.

Scott's work has been widely celebrated on The Travel Channel, "Access Hollywood," "Entertainment Tonight" and NBC's "Life Moments," and he has been featured as a host on ABC's "Extreme Makeover: Wedding Edition," as a makeover expert on "The Tyra Banks Show" and Jane Buckingham's "The Modern Girl's Guide To Life," and on HGTV's "Design Star," in addition to being the wedding planner for Scott Baio's wedding on VH1's "Scott Baio's 46 ... and Pregnant."

With a passion for social causes and community efforts, Scott volunteers time and professional support to Canine Companions, the nation's largest organization dedicated to training and partnering assistance animals with children and adults across many physical and emotional need levels. Scott is also a certified ski instructor working with developmentally disabled children and adults through California's Mammoth Mountain Disabled Sports Eastern Sierra program and the Disabled Sports USA Far West program at California's Alpine Meadows.
